

INTO-Glasgow Caledonian University

About the University

INTO-Centre works in collaboration with Glasgow Caledonian University. Students enrolled at INTO-Centre are eligible for facilities provided by Glasgow Caledonian University. INTO-Centre provides pathway courses. On successful completion of these courses students are eligible for degree courses from Glasgow Caledonian University.

Coursers

INTO-Glasgow Caledonian University provides wide range of pathway courses for International Students. Successful completion of course from INTO centre provides an opportunity to International Students to study there degree courses from Glasgow Caledonian University. It provide following courses for International Students:

1. Foundation Pathways: This course is designed for those International Students who have completed there high school or equivalent academic study with good grades. This course prepares students for direct entry to second year of undergraduate course at Glasgow Caledonian University. On Successful completion of this course students are awarded International Foundation Certificate of Glasgow Caledonian University. This course provide following pathways:

- ✓ Business Management
- ✓ Engineering
- ✓ Computing
- ✓ Built Environment
- ✓ Health or Life Sciences

✓ Accounting

2. INTO-Diploma Pathways: This is a full time academic programme. This course is for those International Students who have completed a recognized foundation programme or students who are already in the first year of undergraduate degree but do not meet the entry requirement for direct entry to Caledonian Business School or School of Engineering and Computing. This course provides following pathways :

- ✓ Business
- ✓ Engineering, Computing & Creative Industries

3. INTO-Graduate Diploma Pathway: This course prepares International Students from various disciplines for postgraduate study at Caledonian Business School or School of Engineering and Computing. This course is of duration of six or nine months programme. This course provides following pathway :

- ✓ English with Business
- ✓ Engineering, Computing & Creative Industries

International Programmes

INTO-Glasgow Caledonian University provides certain courses for International Students. Main International Programmes are following:

1. Pre-Sessional English Course: This course is for those International Students who want to improve there English language before starting there undergraduate or postgraduate study at Glasgow Caledonian University. This course is of duration of 5-10 weeks.

2. General English Course: This course is for those International Students who want to improve their English for business or personal purpose. This course provides insight of British life and culture. This course is of duration of minimum of 4 weeks.
3. English for undergraduate Study: This course is for those International Students who want to improve their English language for academic purpose. This course prepares International Students for academic studies at Glasgow Caledonian University. This course is of duration of minimum one academic year.
4. English for Postgraduate Study: This course helps International Students to improve their academic English for entry into postgraduate degree programme or an INTO Graduate Diploma. This course is of duration of minimum one year.
5. Study Abroad with English: This course is for those International Students who want to improve their English language and want to experience life at U.K. This course provides an opportunity to International Students to study specialist undergraduate modules from Glasgow Caledonian University. This course is of duration of six to eighteen months.
6. Summer School: Summer School provides two types of courses for International Students. Main courses are following :
  - ✓ INTO Essential English: This course helps International Students to improve their English language proficiency for use in everyday situation. This course is available at all levels from elementary to advanced level. This course helps International Students to adjust to the demands, challenges and expectations of living, working and studying in U.K.

- ✓ INTO Academic English: This course help International Students to improve there English language along with there academic studies. This course is of duration of minimum of 2 weeks.

Sports and Activities

Students enrolled at INTO- Centre are eligible for facilities provided by Glasgow Caledonian University. Glasgow Caledonian University has large multipurpose halls. These halls are used for activities such as indoor football, badminton, basketball, volleyball etc. Glasgow Caledonian University has spacious gyms. These gyms have lot of space for floor exercises and plenty of accessories for functional training .Gyms are also equipped with wide range of cardiovascular equipments and resistance machines. Glasgow Caledonian University has student association. This association works for the benefit of students. Student Association is run by students. Student Association of Glasgow Caledonian University provides access to wide range of clubs and societies. It is the place where one can relax and can make new friends.

Location and Weather

INTO centre is situated right in the heart of Glasgow Caledonian University. It is situated at the centre of Scotland city. It is situated at the distance of 5 minutes from Glasgow city centre. Glasgow Caledonian University is well connected with rail and road links with rest of U.K. Climate of Scotland is temperate. Scotland is coolest part of U.K .Temperature in Scotland is generally lower then rest of U.K .Western coastal areas of Scotland are warmer then east and inland areas. It is always advisable to bring warm clothes such as long overcoat, gloves, cap etc

Why to Choose this University

Glasgow Caledonian University is one of the most modern and forward thinking universities in Scotland. Glasgow Caledonian University provides one of the best learning environments in U.K. Glasgow Caledonian University has won times higher award for outstanding support for overseas students. Glasgow Caledonian University is known for providing high quality of teaching, learning and research. Students enrolled at INTO centre are eligible for medical facilities provided by Glasgow Caledonian University .If student is studying for more then six months then they are eligible for health facilities provided by Glasgow Caledonian University. According to research assessment exercise research of Glasgow Caledonian University in applied health profession is placed in top 10 universities of U.K .Work in the field of rehabilitation sciences of Glasgow Caledonian University is ranked top in U.K .Glasgow Caledonian University is one of the largest universities in Scotland. Glasgow Caledonian University is known for most modern and student focused campuses in U.K .Glasgow Caledonian University is one of the leading provider of vocational education in U.K. These vocational courses provide good career options for students. Glasgow Caledonian University is fifth largest university in terms of student recruitment. Glasgow Caledonian University has academic development tutors. These tutors help students in developing there academic skills. If students face any problem regarding there course then they can consult there academic tutor for any advice. Caledonian business school is the largest business school in Scotland and fourth largest in U.K. There is a base within the Saltire centre of Glassgow Caledonian University. This is a hub of all the information which students need from locating council to tax exemptions. Glasgow Caledonian University is equipped with hi-tech library. This library includes reference copy of every curriculum book. Glasgow Caledonian University provides professional skills and knowledge which employer needs. Glasgow Caledonian University offers wide range of innovative specialized courses. These courses are job oriented. They help students in getting good jobs. Glasgow Caledonian University is known for providing work based learning. In work based learning Glasgow Caledonian University provides structural tutorials and workshops supported by study and work based activities. Glasgow Caledonian University has award winning saltire centre. This centre is equipped with social study areas, workstations and free Wi-Fi. Biomedical courses of Glasgow Caledonian University are recognized by health professions council and Institute of biomedical sciences for registration. Glasgow Caledonian University is the only university in Scotland to offer undergraduate bioscience programme. Glasgow Caledonian University is known for producing more building and surveying graduates than any other university in U.K. Law courses of Glasgow Caledonian University are accredited. Glasgow Caledonian University is one of the largest providers of nursing education in country. Psychology degree of Glasgow Caledonian University is accredited by British psychological society. Vision science department of Glasgow Caledonian University is one of its kind in Scotland. This department is known for offering undergraduate degree programmes in optometry and ophthalmic dispensing. Glasgow Caledonian University provides student leader programme. This programme teaches and develops leadership and communication skills such as public speaking, leadership, time management and employability. This programme provides an opportunity to meet new people. Glasgow Caledonian University is the fourth largest university in terms of recruitment. Computer course of Glasgow Caledonian University is accredited by British Computer Society.

Advantages for International Students

Glasgow Caledonian University provides warm welcome to International Students. International Students from 70 different countries are studying there. Glasgow Caledonian is ranked number one in U.K for International Student Experience. International Students enrolled at INTO-Centre are eligible for facilities provided by Glasgow Caledonian University. Glasgow Caledonian University provides exchange opportunities for International Students. Exchange programmes are very beneficial for International Students. It provides opportunity to International Students to study part of there course in there home country and rest of course they can complete in Glasgow Caledonian University. This exchange programme is very economical for International Students. Glasgow Caledonian University arranges fresher's week for International Students. In this week International Students gets opportunity to meet other International Students. It is the place where they can make life long friends. In fresher week International Students come to know about there faculties and the facilities which university campus is providing to them. Glasgow Caledonian University provides accommodation to International Students. Glasgow Caledonian University provides accommodation to International Students on Caledonian court. All rooms are equipped with modern facilities. Glasgow Caledonian University provides both catered and self catered rooms. In self catered rooms Glasgow Caledonian University provides shared kitchen. If International Students need private accommodation then they can contact accommodation office of Glasgow Caledonian University. INTO-Glasgow Caledonian University is highly concerned about the health of its students. All International Students who are enrolled for course of more then six months are eligible for health facilities provided by Glasgow Caledonian University. International Students are provided free medical facilities by National Health Service. INTO-Glasgow Caledonian University provides scholarship to International Students to help them in there higher studies. Glasgow Caledonian University provides following type of scholarships to International Students:

1. INTO-Glasgow Caledonian University provides scholarship to International Students for foundation year .This scholarship is of value of 2,000 pounds. If International Students after completing there foundation course study three years undergraduate course from Glasgow Caledonian University then they are granted further scholarship of 2,000 pounds for each year of undergraduate course.
2. INTO-Glasgow Caledonian University provides scholarship of value of 1,000 pounds to International Students for graduate diploma. If International Students do postgraduate study from Glasgow Caledonian University then they are granted further scholarship of value of 1,000 pounds.

Glasgow Caledonian University has International Student support service. This service helps International Students on all issues from personal to academic issues. Glasgow Caledonian University runs number of clubs and societies. Glasgow Caledonian University provides opportunity to International Students to join these societies and clubs. These societies and clubs provides platform to International Students to meet other students and make life long friends. Glasgow Caledonian University provides personal tutor to International Students. Personal tutors provides all kind of help and support to International Students from the first day of there studies. Glasgow Caledonian University provides career services to International Students. Career service of Glasgow Caledonian University help International Students in preparing there job search strategy. Glasgow Caledonian University helps International Students in preparing there C.V, preparing for interview questions, arranges job fairs etc