

INTO-University of Exeter

About the University

INTO centre works in collaboration with University of Exeter. INTO centre provides pathway courses. On successful completion of these courses one can get admission into University of Exeter for degree courses.

Courses

INTO-University of Exeter offers wide range of courses for Students. These courses provide pathway to studies from University of Exeter. Main courses are following:

1. INTO-Foundation Programme: This programme is suitable for those International Students who have completed secondary schooling in their own country. This programme prepares students for direct entry into first year of undergraduate programme at University of Exeter. On successful completion of this course students are awarded University of Exeter's Foundation Certificate. There are following pathways in this programme :

- ✓ Humanities, Law & Social Sciences
- ✓ Computer Science, Engineering & Mathematics
- ✓ Economics, Finance, & Accounting
- ✓ Science

2. INTO-Diploma Programme: This is advanced one year academic course. This course is equivalent to first year of undergraduate degree course. Successful completion of this course enables students to get entry into second year of undergraduate degree at University of Exeter. This course provide pathway in Business Management, Accounting & Economics. On Successful completion of this course students can do wide range of degrees from University of Exeter Business School.

3. INTO-Graduate Diploma Programme: This course prepares students for entry into Master's course. This course is for those students who have completed there first degree or diploma but have not achieved the necessary academic qualification for entry into Master's degree. On successful completion of this course students are guaranteed a place in related master's degree programme at University of Exeter. This course provide following pathways:

- ✓ Graduate Diploma in Management
- ✓ Graduate Diploma in finance
- ✓ Graduate Diploma in Law
- ✓ Graduate Diploma in Public Administration

International Programmes

INTO-University of Exeter provides certain courses for International Students. Main International programmes are following:

1. INTO-Pre-Sessional English Course: This course is designed for those International Students who want to improve there English language before starting there main course at University of Exeter. Duration of this course depends upon level of English of student. This course is of duration of 5-10 weeks.
2. General English Language Course: This course is designed for those adults who want to improve there ability to communicate in English at post-elementary, intermediate or advanced level. This course is helpful for those International Students who want to improve their English for work. This course provides knowledge of British life and culture.

3. INTO-English for Undergraduate Study: This course is for those International Students whose first language is not English. This is a one year Programme. This programme helps in developing English language along with necessary academic study skills.
4. INTO-Study Abroad with English: This course helps International Students to improve their English while studying academic course at University of Exeter or INTO Center's academic programmes.

Sports and Activities

Students enrolled at INTO centre are eligible for facilities provided by University of Exeter. University of Exeter is highly concerned about the health of its students. University of Exeter is known for world class sports facilities. University of Exeter provides sports facilities for students of all age groups. University of Exeter has Sports Park. This park is equipped with both indoor and outdoor facilities such as badminton court, 4 squash courts, 4 tennis courts, 2 exercise studios, water based hockey pitch, sand based astro pitch, 4 outdoor tennis courts, heated swimming pool etc. University of Exeter also provides coaching in variety of sports such as squash, badminton, table tennis etc. Student Union of University of Exeter is known as student guild. Student guild represents students. It looks after welfare of students. It helps in development of students. Student guild of University of Exeter provides access to wide range of societies and clubs. It is the place where one can relax from its busy schedule and can make new friends.

Location & Weather

INTO-Centre is located on the streatham campus of University of Exeter. University of Exeter is situated in South West of England. It is well connected with rail, road and air links. In South west of England one can experience all the four seasons .Here winters are cooler and summers are warmer. It is advisable to bring warm clothes such as long overcoat, gloves, cap etc.

Why to Choose this University

INTO centre works in collaboration with University of Exeter. Students enrolled at INTO centre are eligible for facilities provided by University of Exeter. INTO-University of Exeter provides pathway to higher studies from University of Exeter. University of Exeter is placed among top 20 universities of U.K .University of Exeter is ranked 4th in U.K among traditional universities for student satisfaction. Business School of University of Exeter is ranked top 10 .Accounting & Finance of University of Exeter is ranked 3rd in U.K . Business studies and Economics of University of Exeter are ranked 7th & 10th respectively. University of Exeter is awarded Queen's Anniversary Prize for research in diabetes. University of Exeter has My Exeter. It is a student portal which is a home of all student IT resources. Students can access it from anywhere in world. University of Exeter has study centre. This centre is fully equipped with audio, video and computer hardware and software. All students enrolled at INTO centre can use the library and computer room of University of Exeter. Library of University of Exeter is equipped with latest study material. Library is opened 24 hours. INTO-University of Exeter provide personal tutor to its students. Students can discuss everything with there tutor. In INTO-University of Exeter size of classes is very small.

Students get individual attention. MBA of University of Exeter is accredited by AMBA (Association of MBA's). University of Exeter is known for world class sports facilities. Graduates from University of Exeter are ranked among top ten in U.K .University of Exeter is known for quality of teaching. Teaching of University of Exeter is ranked excellent by Quality Assurance Agency for higher and further education. In 2007 University of Exeter won prestigious Times Higher Education University of year award. University of Exeter is ranked in top 15 for rewards from economic and social research council. 95% of research of University of Exeter is of International quality. University of Exeter has career and employment service. They have employment team. This team works with regional, national and international employers. University of Exeter arranges job shop for students. They help students in getting jobs, helps in preparing CV and helps in preparing for interview questions. Career service of University of Exeter also arranges career fairs for students. University of Exeter provides counseling services to students. Students can consult these counselors for both personal and academic issues. All consultancies are kept confidential. University of Exeter has skill development unit. This unit helps students in development of comprehensive range of skills required for academic studies. University of Exeter provides Team Development Programme for students. This programme helps students in breaking ice and help students in developing team spirit. Psychology department of University of Exeter is ranked among top 10 in U.K .Course of psychology of University of Exeter is accredited by British Psychological Society. University of Exeter is ranked 1st in U.K for student satisfaction in Business and Management. University of Exeter is ranked 7th for overall performance in U.K .University of Exeter has highest proportion of students receiving first class degrees. University of Exeter is known for its excellent record of PhD completion. University of Exeter has one of the most advanced student media network in country. Student TV, radio station and weekly student newspaper of University of Exeter has won several student media awards. INTO-University of Exeter has dedicated e-learning environment.

Advantages for International Students

University of Exeter provides very warm welcome to International Students. There are over 2,000 International Students from 100 different countries. University of Exeter provides Insessional Programme for International Students. This Programme arranges workshops and tutorials for those International Students who need support in English language for there academic course. International Students who need this support have to register online for this programme. Students don't have to pay extra for these classes. INTO-University of Exeter arranges in-service training courses for International teachers of English. This course is of duration of two to ten weeks. International Students enrolled at INTO centre are eligible for accommodation provided by University of Exeter. University of Exeter provides both off and on campus accommodation. University of Exeter provides accommodation for academic and summer courses. University of Exeter provides following type of accommodation to International Students:

1. Halls of Residence: In this type of accommodation one can have both self catered or catered rooms. All rooms are well equipped with modern facilities.
2. Home stay: This type of accommodation provides home away from home. University of Exeter arranges accommodation with some British family. This type of accommodation helps International Students to improve there English language for communication purpose. In this type of accommodation there is one study bedroom along with all required facilities which one needs at home.

INTO-University of Exeter provide exchange programme for International Students. This programme provide opportunity to International Students to study part of there programme at home country and remaining programme at INTO-University of Exeter. This programme is very cost effective for International Students. INTO-University of Exeter arranges orientation week for International Students. In orientation week students get opportunity to meet other International Students. In orientation week students become familiar with there faculties and also come to know about life and culture of U.K. INTO-University of Exeter helps International Students by providing them financial support. INTO-University of Exeter provides School of Sport and Health Sciences Foundation Scholarship. This scholarship is for those International Students who want to complete foundation programme before starting an undergraduate degree in sports and social sciences. This scholarship is of value of 3,997.50 pounds. It is awarded in the form of deduction in tuition fees from foundation course provided by INTO-University of Exeter.

University of Exeter has International Society. International Society arranges many events and trips for International Students. If International Students are studying for more then six months then National Health Services provide free health services to International Students. INTO-University of Exeter arranges International food evening's .In this type of gatherings International Students get an opportunity to meet other International Students. They also get an opportunity to taste different type of cuisines and also come to know about there culture. INTO-University of Exeter has student service team. This team is always there to help International Students from the first day of there studies. INTO-University of Exeter has International Liaison officer. This officer help International Students in processing there application to University of Exeter on successful completion of there course from INTO centre.